MSC Cruises also informs you that the medical facilities and equipment on board may be technically inadequate for the purposes of childbirth, or to deal with complications in pregnancy, and that during a cruise circumstances may arise which present a potential risk to the pregnancy (such as, for example, the swaying movement of the vessel, adverse weather conditions, fatigue during excursions, sudden changes in weather, excessive noise and possible bus transfers, etc.).

MSC Cruises welcomes guide dogs on board its cruise vessels, on condition that they are in good health and in possession of all documents necessary for entry to the foreign countries visited during the cruise (in particular, for the EU the animal will require the compulsory identification document issued by the competent local health authority, stamped within the 24 hours preceding the journey by the veterinary surgeon certifying the animal's physical condition). MSC Cruises will give prior notice to the passenger concerning the accommodation granted to the animal, any facilities available for it and the relevant arrangements for embarkation and disembarkation of the vessel. MSC Cruises also informs you that:

The vessel has limited medical facilities and equipment which may consequently be technically inadequate for the treatment of your condition and potential complications related to it, and the medical staff on board may not have the specific expertise required.

The means of transport used for excursions (provided by third parties and not MSC Cruises and not included in the holiday package) may not be technically suitable for your specific needs;

The Captain has the power in any event – acting on the advice of the on-board Medical Officer – to refuse, at his entire discretion, to allow you to embark, or to require you to disembark at any time and at any port, at your own cost, in the event that your safety is likely to be compromised by the vessel.

In accordance with the relevant legislation, the Data Controller of the personal data, voluntarily supplied by you completing this form, is MSC Crociere S.p.A., with registered office at via Agostino Depretis No. 31, Naples (Italy), against whom the rights prescribed by the above legislation may be exercised. MSC Cruises confirms, finally, that completing and signing this form does not of itself render effective the sale contract for the holiday package, which – as set out in the General Terms and Conditions of Sale – remains subject to confirmation by the Company.

The undersigned, on his/her part, declares that:

- the information provided above is complete and truthful and that he/she consents to it being processed in accordance with the above arrangements;

- that he/she also releases the Company from all civil and/or criminal liability relating to medical treatment and care to which he/she submits voluntarily, to the condition and operation of equipment which he/she brings on board and, generally, relating to all matters declared above.
